IRISH DIASPORA WOMEN WHO CHANGED THE WORLD

FANNY DURACK
1889-1956

First woman to win Olympic gold in swimming, set 12 swimming world records throughout her career.

KAY MCNULTY
1921-2006

Worked as one of the original programmers of the ENIAC, one of the world's first general-purpose electronic computers.

MARY 'MOTHER' JONES
C. 1837-1930

Played a key role in organising major strikes which brought national attention to the exploitation of child workers.

EILEEN GRAY
1878 - 1976

Designed the E-1027 house, a revolutionary example of modernist architecture.

LADY MARY HEATH
1896 – 1939

Made history by flying solo across Africa, from Cape Town to the UK, in 1928.